Message from the President, FPMPAM

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Council of FPMPAM, it is with great pleasure to invite you to the FPMPAM Annual Scientific Conference 2022. This face-to-face event will allow us the time and opportunity to meet up once again and to share our experiences with our panel of invited faculty. During this pandemic, there had been a slew of new changes to laws and regulations affecting the practice of medicine. These changes are also relevant to the private practitioners.
